Cal. McCarthy and Billy Kenny to Meet "Unknowns" To-Night.

Manager Powers is rounding up the New York tasebull team for the season's work in a decided manner. Before the team assembled in Lichmond, Va., to begin the practice season Powers said: "The New York Club will not carry as large a torce of players this season es usual. There are a number of men who have been engaged temporarily. They will all be given a trial, and those who do the best will stay with us." He has carried out his idea to the letter. His action in releasing several of the lesser lights of the box and the signing of Ed Crane will undoubtedly strengthen the team very much. With Rusie, King and Crane as regular pitchers and Sharrott as an extra man the team can get along very well for a time as this is the first. hind the bat, however. Yesterday's gam at the Polo Grounds between the Gianis and Gorhams was a model of loose playing. An icen of what it was like can be gained from the fact that Fuller made ave runs with a single hit to his credit. The score was 36 to 1 in layor of the Giants.

The Brooklyns were defeated by the Charlestons, 14 to 10. The Charleston team was made up for the most part of Brooklyn play-
